

Academy of storytelling

(Affiliated to The International Institute of Storytelling, Tennessee, U.S.A)

Kathalaya, an organization with a vision to establish storytelling as an effective educational and cultural tool in all spheres of education has been successfully integrating storytelling into school curriculums through children's workshops, teacher training and performances both in India and abroad since 1998. Kathalaya has trained over 49,112 teachers, individuals, professionals and NGOs to use storytelling in their respective fields as an effective tool of communication.

The Academy of Storytelling has been established as a wing of Kathalaya in 2005 dedicated to empower teachers, parents and professionals in the art of storytelling.

Philosophy

To create an entirely new school of thought based on storytelling.

Aim of the Course

- Empowering adults, teachers to use innovative techniques in communication skills.
- To provide scope for activity based teaching and child centered learning
- Integrate storytelling into school curriculum
- Facilitate parents and adults to address the multiple intelligence in children
- Effective Parenting skills.

Meant for

This course is meant for students, teachers, counselors, artists, parents, grand parents, writers filmmakers, corporate and communication specialists who wish to use storytelling to consciously bridge communication gaps both at homes and schools..

Course Contents

- Listening skills, voice and language development
- Intrinsic and Extrinsic Qualities
- Body Language-Role Play and Expressions
- Creative Arts for Storytelling-Puppets, Chitrakathas, etc
- Audio Visual aids for integrated teaching
- Cultural and Indigenous Storytelling forms for language development
- Rediscovering creative and innate abilities of the teacher
- Project presentations

A certificate will be given at the end of the course Course fee: Rs. 6000/- per head which will include Storykit, materials for the course and snacks and tea.